

GULFEAGLE SUPPLY

DISTRIBUTORS
ROOFING AND BUILDING PRODUCTS

May 4, 2026

To Our Customers,

Following a second round of price increase announcements from our manufacturing partners, Gulfeagle Supply will be implementing additional pricing adjustments effective June 1, 2026.

These adjustments reflect continued cost impacts across the roofing industry and will affect the following product categories:

- Residential roofing products and accessories will increase approximately 5% to 10%
- Commercial roofing products will increase 6% to 10%
- Metal products may increase by up to 15% to 20%

Customers are encouraged to work with their local branch to review material needs and explore opportunities to secure product ahead of the effective date, where possible.

Gulfeagle Supply remains committed to providing reliable service and support to your business as we continue to navigate these market conditions.

If you have any questions regarding this announcement, please contact your local Gulfeagle Supply team for additional information.
